17300 mq

DESCRIPTION:

In a unique position, just a few steps from the lake and the beaches, we offer farmland in an area of approximately 18,000 square metres with an annexed building in need of renovation and complete with double independent access by private road. The property is currently developed on two large buildings for a total of about 1700 square metres with the possibility of further extension thanks to the residual volume. Ideal solution for those who are looking for important areas to be redeveloped with the presentation of a recovery project proposing new uses. Given its position and visibility, it presents itself as the ideal situation for commercial and tourist accommodation realities; we remain at your disposal for any further information.
